The action of the district commissioners on the question of the board of school trustees auditing their bills has given rise to a number of conflicting rumors and to some absurd statements. Among these last is the statement put forth, with more zeal than knowledge, that the commissioners intend to abolish the board of school trustees as they have done the board of fire commissioners This statement is so absurd on its face that it is mentioned simply to show the absurdity of some of the rumors. Congress alone has power to abolish the board of school trustees. The trouble, however, which gave rise

The trouble, however, which gave rise to these rumors is not a new one, it having been known and published for months. The final action of the commissioners as to the final control beautiful to the second for several months. The inciting cause of the trouble breaking out at this juncture is in this wise: Last fall certain additions were needed at the Hill school. Proposals for doing this work were advertised for, and Messrs, Bright and Humphrey put in a bid for $1,200, and Messrs. Hayward and Hutchinson for about $1,400. The contract was awarded to the latter. The bill for the work was not approved by the bill for the work was not approved by the principal of the high school, but referred by im to the board, who referred the matter to the committee on high school, of which Mr. Lovejoy was chairman. The latter last De-cember prepared a report on the subject, but that time.

The bill was not paid. Finally a short time ago Messrs. Bright and Humphrey made charges to the commissioners against Gen. Birney, one of the trustees, that he had informed Hayward & Hutchinson of Bright's bid, thereby enabling them to make another bid, which he as the trustee of the division in which the high school is located, accepted, in which the high school is located, accepted, and awarded them the contract. The bill as presented was run up to about $1,300.

Finally on Saturday Messus, Lovejoy, Birney, Brooks, and Clark, of the board of trustees, held an interview with the commissioners. Mr. Lovejoy, in speaking of certain remarks alleged to have been made by Gen. Birney to the effect that the former had endeavered to cause Birney's removal from the deavored to cause Birney's removal from the board, read to the commissioners the report, which he had prepared last winter to be submitted to the school board. In connection with the report he is alleged to have charged Oon. Birney with saying that Lovejoy had promised Hutchinson to see the bill paid if the latter would secure Birney's removal from odice. In connection with this mafter came up the question of the administration of the

A REPUBLICAN reporter called on Mr. Lavejoy and asked him what he had to say about the matter. Mr. Lavejoy politely but firmly refused to be interviewed, saying simply that the matter was in the hands of the

Mr. Brooks said that he was present at the interview Leid with the commissioners on Saturday, and that Mr. Lovejoy read a paper, making, what regimed to him, charges against Gon. Birney. The latter, he said, did not deny the allegation that he had told Mr. Brooks the statement that Mr. Levejoy had tread to account Matching in Managery had tried to secure Hutchinsen's influence in hav-

Gen. Birney said that the statement published about his being confronted with Ms Hutchinson, who affirmed he had made such allega ins about Mr. Loveloy, were not true. He said that he sent a blank form of bid to Messrs Bright & Humphrey for the supplying and fitting up of an apparatus for chemistry and physics at the high school. They returned the bid for $1.268. Hayward & Hutchinson some time before had bidden $1.470, but their bid was $1,25°. Hayward & Hutchinson some time before had bidden $1,470, but their bid was informal. Gen. Birney informed them if they would do the work for $1,250 he would recommend they be given the contract. They sent in a bid for that amount, and the two bids were transmitted to the commissioners with the Birney's research that the bids were transmitted to the commissioners with Gen. Birney's recommendation that the lower one be accepted. This was done and Hayward & Hutchinson got the contract. Commissioners Edmonds and West both seemed to make light of the alleged charges of Mr. Loveloy against Gen. Birney. The question before the commissioners was about the administration of the school funds, and they hold that all disbursements of money must be made under their direction. The must be made under their direction. trustees must make requisitions on them. They had determined to send a letter to the trustees defining their powers. * The letter will be found in the school report.

A QUIET MARRIAGE.

Mr. Bergling and Mass Johnson, Who Failed to Appear When the Day Was Set for Their Union in May, Are Quietly Married and Start on a Bridal Tour.

Miss Ida Johnson is the daughter of a presperous butcher living at the corner of Fourth and G streets northeast. She is a very pretty blonde and has made many friends by her charming manners. Among her many admirers was a young man of good address named Henry Bergling. They had known each other since childhood, and when they agen other since childhood, and when they approached the age when their minds took a love turn they plighted their troth. Miss Johnson is by faith a Lutheran, while Mr. Bergling is a Cathelic.

They had arranged to be married on the twenty-ninth of May last and accordingly invitations were sent out to their friends to the number of 400. Dr. Domer, the paster of the Reference Lutheran church, was selected to perform the ceremony, and on the night named the church was filled to its utmost capacity. The reverend doctor was ready to partors the marriage ceremony, and 7 o'clock was set as the hour; but although the guests waited the coming of the couple until after 9 o'clock they failed to put in their appearance. Inquiry at the homes of the pair revealed the fact that a conflict of faiths had prevented the ceremony, Mr. Bergling refusing to be married in the Lu-theran church, while Miss Johnson would not consent to be married by a priest. The parents of Miss Johnson were justly indig-nant at the treatment their daughter had received from Mr. Bergling, and refused to allow a reconciliation, although both young people desired it, Not satisfied, however, with the turn of affairs, and believing as lovers do that they were made for each other, the young people set about making explanations and arranged for a clandestine meeting. Everything must have turned out all right, for a marriage lihave turned out all right, for a marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. Bergling and Miss Johnson, and at 11 o'clock yesterday morning Miss Johnson changed her name to that of Bergling. The 4:30 train carried Mr. and Mrs. Bergling to the sea shore on their honeymoon. They were married at the Memorial church by the Rev. Dr. Butler. When a reporter called at the residence of Miss Johnson's parents last night he found the folks smiling, and declaring that they did not know how the young people managed to arrange their differences, but that they evidently believed that "all's well that ends well."

The Coming Bicycle Contest.

There will probably be an immense attendan . at the bicycle race, for the championship of the world, on Saturday, between Prince, the champion of America, and Higham, champion of England. HENRY TAIT RODIER'S FUNERAL.

Impressive Services at Union Bethel Chapel Yesterday Afternoon.

Union Bethel chapel, on Twentieth street between Pennsylvania avenue and H street northwest, was crowded yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by the relatives and friends of the late Henry Tait Rodier to witness the last sad rites performed over his remains. The casket containing the body was brought into the church by six young men, Messes, John Welch, Edward C. Curl, William E. Cruit, F. J. Ward, George E. Welch, and W. F. Nabers, who acted as pail bearers, immediately followed by the family. The choir rendered in a very effective manner "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," It was a most impressive some, and tears were seen in many eyes. After a very fervent prayer by Rev. Sannel M. Hartsock, paster of Hamline M. E. church, formerly in charge of Union Bethel, the choir sang "Rock of Ages." The floral gifts were numerous and very becautiful, wreaths, crosses, and broken columns surmonited by white doves having prominence. The remarks of at 4:30 o'clock by the relatives and friends of doves having prominence. The remarks of the clergyman, Rev. Mr. Hartsock, were based upon the words, "If a man dies, shall he live again?"

He spoke of death as an event which will occur and must occur at some time to us all; an event which neither strength, age, nor wisdom can prevent. He warned all to so conduct themselves as to be able to deserve concluded not to present it to the board at the reward promised by Jesus, "He who be lieveth in Me shall have life everlasting."

The reverend gentieman spoke in glowing and well deserved praise of the many noble qualities of both mind and heart possessed by the deceased, and called upon the young mer present to imitate his virtues and live a godly present to initate his virtues and live a godly and upright life. The minister closed bis remarks with a prayer that God would shower His richest blessings upon the family who have been so grieviously afflicted. A large concourse of relations and friends fol-lowed the remains to Oak Hill cemetery. where the interment took place.
